INTERCESSIONS

Christ the Lord is our head; we are his members. In joy let us call out to him:

R. Lord, may your kingdom come.

Christ our Savior, make your Church a more vivid symbol of the unity of all mankind,

— make it more effectively the sacrament of salvation for all peoples.

Through your presence, guide the college of bishops in union with the Pope,

— give them the gifts of unity, love and peace.

Bind all Christians more closely to yourself, their divine Head,

— lead them to proclaim your kingdom by the witness of their lives.

Grant peace to the world,

— let every land flourish in justice and security.

Grant to the dead the glory of resurrection,

— and give us a share in their happiness.

1 Pet 1:3-5

Praised be the God and Father
of our Lord Jesus Christ,
he who in his great mercy
gave us new birth;
a birth unto hope which draws its life
from the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead;
a birth to an imperishable inheritance,
incapable of fading or defilement,
which is kept in heaven for you
who are guarded with God's power through faith;
a birth to a salvation which stands ready to be revealed in the last days.

INTERCESSIONS

The world was created by the Word of God, re-created by his redemption, and it is continually renewed by his love. Rejoicing in him we call out:

℟: Renew the wonders of your love, Lord.

We give thanks to God whose power is revealed in nature,
— and whose providence is revealed in history.

Through your Son, the herald of reconciliation, the victor of the cross,

— free us from empty fear and hopelessness.

May all those who love and pursue justice,

— work together without deceit to build a world of true peace.

Be with the oppressed, free the captives, console the sorrowing,
feed the hungry, strengthen the weak,

— in all people reveal the victory of your cross.

After your Son's death and burial you raised him up again in glory,

— grant that the faithful departed may live with him.

Hebrews 12:22-24

You have drawn near to Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to myriads of angels in festal gathering, to the assembly of the first-born enrolled in heaven, to God the judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood which speaks more eloquently than that of Abel.

INTERCESSIONS

Rejoicing in the Lord, from whom all good things come, let us pray:

℟. Lord, hear our prayer.

Father and Lord of all, you sent your Son into the world, that your name might be glorified in every place,

— strengthen the witness of your Church among the nations.

Make us obedient to the teachings of your apostles,

— and bound to the truth of our faith.

As you love the innocent,

— render justice to those who are wronged.

Free those in bondage and give sight to the blind,

— raise up the fallen and protect the stranger.

Fulfill your promise to those who already sleep in your peace,

— through your Son grant them a blessed resurrection.
